The school celebrates Book Week!

On Wednesday the children joined in the fun of Book Week by coming to school dressed as a character from a favourite book, from “Superman” to “Diary of a Wimpy Kid” and popular fairy tales. Not ones to miss out, the staff dressed up using inspiration from Alison Lester’s book “Clive Eats Alligators”.

CWA Morocco Day

The whole school, together with some parents travelled to Grattai Hall on Friday where they were the guests of the CWA ladies. This year’s country of study was Morocco. The children presented a Moroccan play, performed a song and the Opera House recorder players presented a musical item.

The children enjoyed the Moroccan inspired lunch. Thank you to the CWA members for making us welcome.
